FOREWORD

The ALMANAC AND YEAR Book of the Reformed Church in the United States for the year of our Lord 1930, is published at a peculiarly significant time. In the months succeeding the triennial sessions of the General Synod, the highest judicatory of our denomination, we are naturally thinking of the significant actions of that body, and arranging our denominational affairs in accordance with its decisions and instructions. We are also facing the Pentecostal Year. In 1930 we are to celebrate the 1900th anniversary of the birthday of the Christian Church, with a program which includes an intensive campaign of personal evangelism; a Church attendance crusade; a systematic effort to increase the membership of our Church Schools; the re-establishment of a family altar in every home; a series of "Upper Room" prayer meetings to be held in Churches, homes, shops, offices and stores; the wider circulation and use of Christian literature; and a stimulating reading of a chapter a day of the Gospel according to St. Luke and the Acts of the Apostles. Surely we should be much in prayer as we face this year of strategic spiritual opportunity, and, by the grace of God, we should work together to make it the greatest year our beloved Zion has ever experienced. It will require a combination of sincerity, earnestness and definiteness, on the part both of pastors and people.

A word of gratitude is again due to those who so generously recognized the value of the ALMANAC AND YEAR Book, and helped to place it in tens of thousands of Reformed Church homes. They realize that in the cultivation of loyal and intelligent Church membership this book is a veritable "household necessity." We are endeavoring again to make it inspiring as well as informing, and have provided, in brief form for busy people, a revised roster of the ministers, judicatories, Boards, institutions and agencies of the Reformed Church in the United States, together with the facts and statistics which we hope may be of greatest value to those interested in the welfare of our denomination. We are also noting as many as possible of the outstanding events of the past year in our Church. With your continued interest, this little book will no doubt enjoy again the most extensive circulation of any publication of our Church.

Among the most significant actions of General Synod, we note: (1) the creation of the new Board of Christian Education by the merging of the former Board of Christian Education with the Publication and Sunday School Board; (2) the approval of an Amendment to the Constitution of the Church, admitting women to all the rights, privileges and prerogatives of men in the Reformed Church; (3) the submission to the Classes of the foregoing Amendment and numerous other proposed changes in the Constitution; (4) the authorization to the Laymen's Missionary Movement to establish "The Reformed Churchmen's League" as an agency of our Church life, to be financed independently of General Synod's budgets; (5) the expression of a conviction that the proposed union of the Reformed Church in the United States, the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, and the Evangelical Synod of North America, "should be effected as soon as possible," together with instructions to the Commission on the Closer Relation of the Churches, as well as a newly appointed committee of twenty-one, to act in accordance with this decision. General Synod also recommended the consolidation of The Reformed Church Messenger, The Christian World, and The Outlook of Missions, into one English weekly paper. The following budgets were also adopted for the new triennium: for Home Missions, $517,400 (this includes a grant of $10,000 for Catawba College and $10,000 for the Mission House); for Foreign Missions, $525,000; for Ministerial Relief, $116,650; for Christian Education, $90,000; for the Executive Committee of General Synod, $20,000; for the Contingent Fund, $20,000; for the American Bible Society, $5,000; a total of $1,294,050.

Every member of the Reformed Church should be deeply interested in the statistical summary for 1929 which appears in this issue of the Almanac. This was the year in which the President of our General Synod pleaded for a concerted effort to increase our membership to 400,000. It is necessary for the Stated Clerk of General Synod, however, to announce the rather discouraging fact that the total communicant membership suffered a decrease of 1,040, the Sunday School enrollment a decrease of 912, gifts for benevolence decreased $8,398, and offerings for congregational purposes decreased $116,451. Attention has been called to the statement made in 1873 by Dr. John W. Nevin, that great leader of the Reformed Church, when he called attention to the fact that "the rates of numerical increase in our Church," during the decade then ending, were "greater than those of any other denomination." The present situation calls for renewed consecration, more fervent prayer, and a wider use of our resources. Much faithful work is being done; and those entrusted with spiritual leadership are manifesting, for the most part, a noble and courageous spirit in upholding the highest standards of Christian doctrine and duty. We are living in difficult and dangerous times, and it behooves us all to surrender more fully to the will of God. Will we really "mean business" in the Pentecostal Year of 1930?

last May, a full report of its activities. The scope and nature of the work done were of such value that the General Synod resolved to "give full expression of its heartfelt appreciation of the effective and efficient labors of the Executive Committee during the past triennium, and of the untiring and loyal services of the Executive Secretary of the Executive Committee."

In continuing the Executive Committee for this triennium, the General Synod thus reiterated the functions of the Committee, as they were stated in the Blue Book of the General Synod, and added other duties: "The Executive Committee shall have general executive and administrative supervision over all the activities carried on under the authority of General Synod and shall be its promotional agency. It shall act on the communications from other Church Bodies requiring attention. It shall see to it that adequate publicity in the secular and general religious press be given to the pronouncements, activities and achievements of the Denomination. The Executive Committee shall stimulate the Evangelistic and Educational work of the Church; co-ordinate the work of the Boards of General Synod, receive and adjust the budgets of said Boards and submit them to General Synod with recommendations; co-operate with the Classes in apportioning the budgets of the Boards and assist the Classes and Congregations in securing the budgets; regulate the making of special campaigns and appeals for funds throughout the Church; serve as a general bureau of Church Finances; promote the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship; prepare the Order of Business and the Blue Book for the meeting of the General Synod, and, with the pastor loci, work out the program of the General Synod. Its duties shall be subject to revision at each triennial session of the General Synod. A record of the Executive Committee's proceedings shall be kept and submitted to the General Synod."

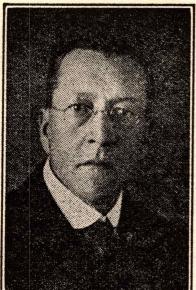

In order to fulfill efficiently its obligation and in order that matters referred to the Committee may be considered thoroughly with a minimum expenditure of time, the following sub-committees of the Executive Committee were appointed and their duties defined: (1) On Church Administration—with primary responsibility "for matters pertaining to the General Synod as such; including emergency or important ad-interim matters, communications from other Church Bodies, inter-denominational relationships, the Blue Book and Order of Business for the General Synod;" (2) On Church Government—with responsibility for "all matters coming up from Congregations, Classes or Synods requiring interpretation; any ecclesiastical matters on which advice is sought or should be given; statistical tables; preparation

The reports of these committees are submitted to the Executive Committee which then makes the final decisions in all matters.

The 21 members of the Executive Committee are as follows: The President, 1st and 2nd Vice-Presidents, Stated Clerk, and Treasurer of the General Synod, who are the corresponding officers of the Committee, the former President, and the Assistant Stated Clerk of the General Synod, eight pastors and elders elected by the General Synod, one representative from each of the four Boards of the General Synod, and two representatives of the Woman's Missionary Society.

The Executive Committee prepared the Order of Business for the General Synod which met in May, and in co-operation with the Committee on Arrangements in Indianapolis did much of the work preparatory to the triennial meeting held this year.

The General Synod, acting on the report of the Executive Committee, recommended that our "Classes meet in regular session semi-annually, in the spring to consider questions relating to the life of the congregations or the interests of the Classis, and in the fall to consider the relation of the Charges and Classis to the denominational activities."

The Statistical Blanks for the congregations and Classes were simplified by the Executive Committee, with a rearrangement in the first three columns of the General Table Blank No. 1, and substituting two columns for the first six columns under the head of Benevolences. The present Tables regarding Church Schools and Young People's Work are to be combined in one Table. There will thus be only two Tables necessary, instead of the four of several years ago. These changes were approved by the General Synod.

The Executive Committee had been overruled to arrange a better distribution of Special Days, and submitted a revised list to the General Synod which was adopted as follows: "Each Board of the General Synod shall have one day to emphasize its work and invite special offerings for that work, these days to be as follows: Foreign Mission Day (Board of Foreign Missions), second Sunday in February. Children's Day (Board of Christian Education), second Sunday in June. Ministerial Relief Day (Board of Ministerial Relief) last Sunday in September. Home Mission Day (Board of Home Missions) second Sunday in November. Each of these months, February, June, September and November, shall be kept for these causes. Reformation Day and Young People's Day shall be observed on the Sunday nearest January 19, to be known as Education Day, and used for recruiting for the Christian Ministry and other forms of life service, and for the interests of the educational institutions, but with no special offering. Rally Day shall be one day during the month of October, the Sunday to be fixed by the local congregation, with no special offering. Church Paper Day shall be the second Sunday in December, it being understood that congregations which cannot observe it on that day may do so on some other day during the year. Christmas shall be, as at present, for the Orphans' Homes."

The matter of denominational publicity has been a major concern of the Executive Committee. It has been endeavoring to give adequate publicity, both through the religious and secular press, to matters of denominational importance. It now has a steadily increasing list of newspapers to which articles are sent from time to time. In preparation for, and especially during, the meeting of the General Synod, unusual work was done along this line. During the meeting, one story was sent out every day to newspapers in Reformed Church territory, and clippings which were obtained from a clipping bureau, whose services were engaged for a brief season, showed that news of the Indianapolis meeting appeared in the newspapers of almost every state in the Union. Taken altogether, the publicity of this last meeting of the General Synod was many times more far-reaching than that of any previous General Synod.

The subject of Annuity Agreements has been under study by the Executive Committee, and will be continued, by action of the General Synod, which recommended that "a uniform rate should be observed by all the Boards and agencies of the Church." Three of General Synod's Boards have tentatively approved of a table of rates submitted by the Executive Committee, but more work will be done along these lines before final action can be taken.

The General Synod adopted only slightly increased budgets for its Boards and agencies. The budgets of the four Boards and that of the American Bible Society are divided among the Classes on the bases recommended by the General Synod, "taking into account the membership, the previous giving for benevolences and for congregational expenses, the amount of debt-free property and the moral ability of the Classis." The Apportionments are adopted each year by the Chairmen of the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees, meeting in Harrisburg in September, who are empowered by the General Synod to represent the Classes in this matter.

The three principles regarding campaigns as adopted by the Executive Committee were approved by the General Synod, and all Boards and Institutions are requested to adhere strictly to them. They are: "(1) As far as possible all institutions and causes shall provide their maintenance and support through the regular and established channels, so that special drives and appeals may be reduced to a minimum. (2) Any institution not controlled by General Synod shall receive the approval of the Synod or Synods under whose control it operates before putting on a financial campaign; after receiving such approval, the institution shall bring the action of the Synod or Synods to the attention of the Executive Committee. (3) Boards or institutions conducting campaigns, approved by the Executive Committee of General Synod, shall not solicit consistories or congregations to underwrite quotas or to place quotas in their congregational budgets. This is not to be understood, however, as preventing any Board or institution in conducting an approved campaign from asking a congregation or consistory to accept a quota and raise it in cash or subscriptions during the campaign period."

The General Synod of 1926 instructed the Executive Committee to study the Constitution of the Reformed Church, and to "present any needed amendments at the next session of General Synod," and also to make "such changes and revisions as will bring it up to the present needs of the Church." The Executive Committee carried out these instructions most fully. The suggested changes as amended and adopted by the General Synod will come before the Classes for action.

To the Executive Committee had been referred the matter of a survey of the Orphans' Homes, the Hospitals and Homes for the Aged of the Reformed Church. It was learned that the Social Service Commission was conducting a somewhat similar survey, and the Executive Committee requested that Commission to continue its survey and to make it as thorough as possible. A report was submitted to the Executive Committee by the Social Service Commission, which the Executive Committee presented to the General Synod as a part of its report, giving entire credit for the work done to the Social Service Commission and its Secretary, Rev. James M. Mullan, D.D.

The following resolution was adopted by the General Synod: "That General Synod adopt the policy that there should be no overlapping boundaries of Synods or Classes, and that the Executive Committee be instructed to aid in every possible way in the carrying out of this policy." The Executive Committee has given, and will continue to give assistance to Synods or Classes in realigning their boundaries, in accordance with this policy of the General Synod.

One of the major duties of the Executive Committee has been the carrying on of the Promotional work for the denomination. This includes many phases, and so far has been done in the Classes and congregations largely by the Missionary and Stewardship Committees. With this in mind a Conference is held with the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees every year in September, at which time the Apportionments of the Budgets of the Boards of the General Synod are adopted, and a full and free discussion is conducted on topics that come within the realm of the missionary and benevolent work, and that pertain to the advancement of the entire denomination. At these Conferences plans are suggested which are the bases of the programs for the fall meetings of the Classes, and also of the Consistorial or regional conferences which are becoming a part of the fall work in many of the Classes.

The Executive Secretary prepares and publishes The Kingdom's Support each month, giving in addition to the usual statistics and informative articles, short paragraphs suitable to be used in parish bulletins. These paragraphs give denominational news in tabloid form. The General Synod authorized the Executive Committee to "continue the publication of The Kingdom's Support and to publish in this publication brief items of denominational news each month for the benefit of pastors who may desire to use them in their own weekly or monthly bulletins."

Through the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees, and by correspondence, and the distribution of literature, the Executive Committee promotes the making of the Every Member Canvass in the congregations as a means of subscribing the full congregational and benevolent budgets. Thousands of pieces of literature are sent, upon request, to pastors or others who are doing this work. The Committee has available special literature for the canvassers, and for the members, giving helps in making the Canvass, and information regarding the causes and needs. This year the Executive Committee feels that the emphasis should be put upon the idea of EVERY MEMBER subscribing and contributing to the missionary and benevolent work of the Church as well as to congregational expenses. The Canvass comes in November. Each year it becomes more nearly a simultaneous Every Member Canvass, for more and more of our congregations are making it at a specified time.

An Apportionment Poster for use in the congregations to show the monthly payments on the Apportionments is prepared by the Executive Committee each year. The General Synod recommended the continuation of this Poster, and also that the "same be more largely used by our congregations."

The Executive Committee at its meeting in June, 1929, voted that the 1900th Anniversary of Pentecost receive major emphasis throughout the Church for all of 1929 and until Whitsunday, June 8, 1930.

The promotion of the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship is carried on under the auspices of the Executive Committee. For some years a Stewardship Period, beginning in January and lasting until about the middle of March has been observed throughout the Church. Stewardship literature is distributed by the Committee, and the Stewardship Essay and Poster Contests open definite fields of endeavor for the young people. By recommendation of the General Synod, 1930-31 will be observed as Stewardship Year for our Reformed Church, and plans are being made which will include our entire membership in the observance of a denominational Stewardship program.

The Executive Committee appreciates the confidence shown in it and with the sympathetic, cordial support of the Church will endeavor to serve it faithfully during the next three years.

HOME MISSIONS

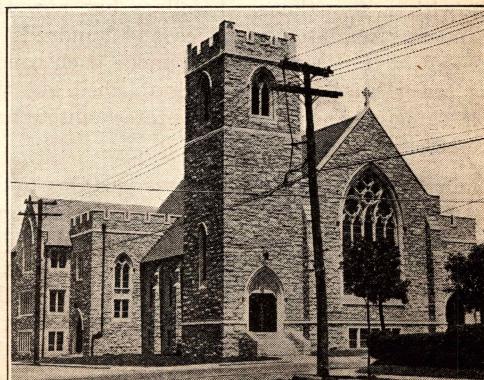

HUNGARIAN C. E. CONFERENCE, TOLEDO, OHIO, JUNE 26-28, 1929

I. The New Home Mission Policy

The work of Home Missions has become a highly specialized enterprise in the Church. Formerly it meant merely the founding and fostering of new congregations until they reached the stage of self support. But new conditions have entered in, giving rise to new problems and necessitating a new policy. The two major problems which emerge today pertain to the City and to the Country Church. Religious conditions in our cities are vastly different today than what they were twenty-five years ago. Practically every city has its Council or Federation of Churches and this body usually determines the location and organization of new churches. Through this general body all the denominations in a given city have a voice in the establishment of the churches of any one denomination. These Councils of Churches have Committees on Comity which allocate fields to the respective denominations. This arrangement is supposed to forestall two serious errors in planting mission churches viz, overlapping and overlooking. Every section of the city is to be occupied but there is to be no hurtful rivalry. Each denomination is to respect the rights of the others. No field is entered without a thorough study of the same. Consequently, a Research Department is usually maintained whose business it is to make a complete survey of the field and to study all the conditions that prevail. After such a diagnosis of a field has been made and the territory has been allocated to a denomination, it is with the definite understanding that the field must be occupied adequately and at once. This implies two things: First, a building that will meet modern requirements of Church work. Two features of Church work are emphasized: worship and education. The building must express the ideals of worship for the community. It cannot be a hall or a stable or a hut. It must meet the aesthetic taste of the people who are expected to worship there. It must also meet the requirements of the modern program of religious education. A one-celled building is not regarded as adequate. It must lend itself to the many-sided activities in a community which center in the Church.

The Second requirement is a full time minister with a staff of paid workers. Once a missionary pastor could serve a number of churches. All he needed to do was to have stated preaching services in the mission. But this is no longer satisfactory. He must give all his time to this one work, for he ministers not simply to a few folk of his own denominational affiliation but to the whole community regardless of church relations. Usually he alone is not sufficient for this large task and there must be associated with him a corps of workers who have assigned to them definite tasks.

It will be observed that this new policy demands a much greater outlay of money than did the old policy. Once a mission chapel could be built with a few thousand dollars but now the cost mounts up into the fifties and hundreds of thousands. It is evident that under such conditions fewer missions can be established but the whole thing is done in a more statesmanlike and more effective way.

The other problem that emerges pertains to the rural Church. Rural conditions have changed more radically than have those of the city. The automobile, the introduction of machinery, the tenant farmer, and social conditions generally, have made the country side and the country church a new problem. A new program must be introduced. Religious life in the country must find new ways of expression. It is a mistake for the country church to model its program after the city church. The country church is not a city church in the open spaces. The country church must have a program of its own. This requires a special type of minister, one who has specialized along these lines of religious activities. Serving a rural pastorate must become a career for the rural minister. The program involves the consolidation of small churches by the country side into strong centers for the development and expression of the social, educational, recreational and religious life of the people. The Reformed Church through its Board of Home Missions is now maintaining several such centers as experimental stations in this new program. It should be stated that the new rural policy is still in its experimental stage and doubtless many modifications will have to be made before it is perfected.

This two-fold problem, one in the city and the other in the country, will necessitate a change of organization in the machinery of our Boards of Home Missions. Instead of having departments to supervise mission churches in different parts of the country, there will come to be Departments of City Work and of Country Work, with Superintendents who are experts in these lines and who will concern themselves not only with so called mission congregations but with all the congregations of the denomination in their respective fields of operation.

II. Present Types of Home Mission Work

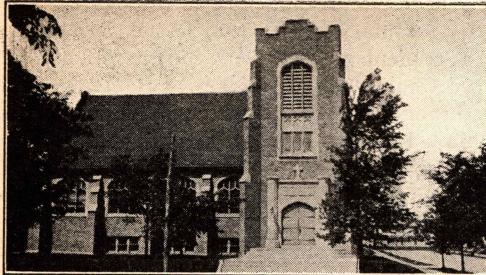

1. The Reformed Church is conducting mission work among the following nationalities: English, German, Hungarian, Czech, Japanese, Indian and Hebrew. The Board of Home Missions has approximately 300 mission stations in the United States and Canada. It requires an outlay of half a million dollars annually to support this work. This money is supplied by the Church through an apportionment which is made by the General Synod upon the Classes and through the Classes upon the congregations.

2. The Board is also conducting special work along educational lines. It is supporting a full time Professor for Hungarian students in our educational institutions at Lancaster, Pa. and a part time teacher for Hungarians in the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton, O. It is maintaining a student pastor for students of the Reformed Church in the University of Pennsylvania and other educational institutions in Philadelphia. It is making special appropriations for student work at State College, Pa., Columbus, O., and Madison, Wis. It is employing a corps of women workers in our Hungarian and Japanese churches. The money for these women workers is supplied by the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, which body proves a valuable auxiliary in carrying out the enlarged program of the Board. In accordance with the action of the General Synod the Board is making annual appropriations to Catawba College in North Carolina and to the Mission House in Wisconsin.

3. The work of Social Service which involves the christianization of the whole social order, is also carried forward by the Board through a special commission.

4. The work of Evangelism which bulges so large in the program of the modern church, is a part of our Home Mission task. Special emphasis is placed upon Home Visitation Evangelism and upon the vitalization of every church within our denomination. The year 1930 marks the 1900th anniversary of the founding of the Christian Church and a proper observance of this great historic fact is being planned for the period ending on Pentecost, June 8. The great spiritual ideas and ideals for the Church which are suggested in the early chapters of the Acts of the Apostles are to receive fresh emphasis in all of our Churches.

5. The Board of Home Missions is carrying forward a large church building program. Last year twelve mission churches were erected through its Church Building Department. This work is made possible through the Church-building Funds of $500.00 or more, each, which have become so popular among our people. A Department of Church Finance has lately been erected, the purpose of which is to assist through expert service, our mission churches to finance their building operations or to liquidate their debts incurred by the erection of their churches.

This many-sided program of Home Missions deserves the hearty support and the ready co-operation of all the members of our beloved Reformed Church. The work of Home Missions is the forerunner of a larger and better Church.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

FOREIGN MISSIONS is the outreach of the arm of the Church towards men everywhere to help them come to a knowledge of Jesus, the Saviour of the world, Whom to know is life eternal. It is not a human endeavor but a divine enterprise. Those who engage in this noble work are obeying the command of the Lord, and are satisfying the deepest impulses of their own souls.

The Christians of Japan and China will carry on a campaign of evangelism, beginning on January 1, 1930, to continue three years in Japan and five in China. This should be an inspiring example for Christians in America.

Five new missionaries were sent out to Japan during 1929: Rev. and Mrs. Marcus J. Engelman, Miss Harriet P. Smith, Mr. Charles M. Le-Galley and Miss Ruth E. Nall. More should follow for the growing work and to fill a number of vacancies.

Why study Foreign Missions? A simple answer would be to understand the expansive power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world. It is a natural desire for the Christian heart to mark the progress of the Kingdom of God among the nations of the earth. Men in our day are coming to realize with profound conviction that the whole world is a neighborhood and all mankind a brotherhood.

One of the outstanding events of the Japan Mission in 1929 was the celebration on March 8-10 of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the beginning of the work by our Church. The venerable Dr. John C. Bowman, President-emeritus of the Lancaster Theological Seminary, was the representative of the Board, and delivered deeply impressive addresses on that memorable occasion.

Foreign Mission Day, as usual, will be observed on the second Sunday in February, the ninth, and congregations, Sunday Schools and individuals are to be encouraged to bring special offerings for the maintenance of the work. The income from the Apportionment is not sufficient to meet the most urgent regular expenses.

By action of the General Synod, the Board of Foreign Missions is to serve as the agency of our denomination to receive funds for the relief of our sister churches in Europe, and to forward them to the Central Bureau located at Geneva, Switzerland, in charge of Dr. Adolph Keller, Secretary. We should raise at least $10,000 in 1930.

Grand as is the old missionary hymn, "From Greenland's Icy Mountains", sacred as it should ever be to our hearts, it does not seem to fully express the spirit of the age in which we live. There is no reference in it to the untold millions in China and Japan. Thanks to the missionary zeal of the present day, there are now no "unknown lands" in all creation. "Christ for the World we sing", voices the mind of God and the heart of the Christian. This is the favorite hymn in many churches.

LITTLE MISS MENG
WHO LIVES IN YUNGSUI, CHINA

The Board has issued an appeal for special contributions of $30,000 for the China Travel and Repair Fund. This is necessary to provide the expenses of the outgoing missionaries. The suggestion has been made, and it is meeting with favor, that members send one of the new currency bills in any denomination. In this way, an urgent need can be met, and no extra indebtedness will be incurred.

That pioneer missionary, Mrs. Mary B. Hoy, in China, affords an insight into the week's work. "I spend several hours daily studying the Chinese language, teach English one hour a day in Huping Middle School, and try to help our Chinese brethren wherever I can, if it is only to serve sponge cake and tea. We have an interesting Sunday School at Lakeside, and a flourishing prayer meeting is held in my house every Sunday evening. Every Tuesday afternoon we have a prayer meeting for Christian women, and every Friday a public service for the women. After being back in China, I can say sincerely that I am glad to be here."

The need of chapels is still most urgent in our Japan Mission, and we are told by the missionaries that no church lacking suitable property in the form of lot, chapel and parsonage, attains to self-support. The present number of Japanese pastors is 66; chapels, 36; parsonages, 33; rented dwellings, 80; communicants, 6,017; Sunday School enrollment, 8,672; members of Young People's Societies, 970; contributions of Japanese Christians, $21,325.09. There are 24 Women Evangelists. Eight kindergartens are in charge of 21 teachers.

The General Synod urges pastors and elders to peruse the splendid report of the Board of Foreign Missions and pass on the valuable information it contains and the inspiration with which it throbs, to their respective consistories and congregations, so that when they pray, "Thy Kingdom Come", that petition may be offered with intelligence and sincerity.

Prof. James declared, "There is no one thing I believe as a teacher of American history that Americans need today more than a world vision." The great founders of the Modern Missionary Movement had caught this vision. They were men of big heart and of broad vision rather than of small credal systems. One reason why they went to the ends of the earth with the Gospel message was that they were too big to submit to the horizons existing at home. All their successors in the work have gone forth with the same virile faith and joyous hope. They are preaching a whole Gospel for the whole man, to the whole world.

"Japan is the great open door in modern Christian Missions". Such was the impressive statement made by our able missionary, Dr. David B. Schneider in his inspiring address before the General Synod. He gave these facts of interest: North Japan College has a total student body of 931. The Christian purpose of the institution is kept to the fore, and of the 130 recent graduates, 94 went out as Christian young men. Miyagi College has an enrollment of 460. No other women's college in Japan excels it in Christian influence. "What of the next fifty years? What will the Reformed Church do? Will she stand by her achievement of the past fifty years and bring it on to completion? The great challenge that comes to the Reformed Church at this time is to stand by her work in Japan."

Zeal for missionary work is the thermometer of the religious life of a congregation. How can this zeal be kindled and kept alive? To a very large extent only through the pastor. "The weak spot of Missions", said Dr. Theodore F. Munger, "is not in the field nor in the administration of the Board, nor in the pew, but in the pulpit." The Church shows greatest signs of progress when the pastors put forth their sole strength in the effort to extend her sway. A great responsibility rests upon the man who holds the pastoral office. He is set for the defense of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and for its spread in all lands.

To many people China is an eternal puzzle. To the wide-awake Christian mind, however, it presents a great opportunity. The doors which had closed upon much of our Mission work in the early part of 1927, are opening again to receive the Gospel messenger. Beginning with the visit of our missionaries, the Revs. George R. Snyder and Jesse B. Yaukey, to Yochow City in the fall of 1927, there has been a gradual return of our evangelistic and some other workers. New Year's Day, 1929, saw 15 of our missionaries on the field. Thanksgiving Day, 1929, will add 9 more to this number. The warm welcome which has been given our returning workers by the Chinese in every place is cause for real rejoicing.

THEOLOGICAL GRADUATES OF NORTH JAPAN

The United Mission in Mesopotamia has had a good year. The evangelistic work is reaching out into new areas, one of these including Southern Iraq which contains the holy cities of the Shia Moslems and is said to be peculiarly open to the Christian message at present. A boarding department was opened a year ago for the American School for Boys at Baghdad. The total enrollment is 384. Of these, 120 are Moslems, 116 Jews and 148 Christians. There is also a Girls' School at Baghdad with 115 pupils including 40 Moslems, 35 Jews and 40 Christians. There is need for suitable buildings.

Mr. Hwei-ling Lu, one of the former teachers in Huping College, and for the past three years a post-graduate student in America, recently gave expression to his gratitude in these beauti-

CEDAR CREST SUMMER SCHOOL (1929)

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Leading Events of the Year

The biggest event of the year, of course, was the merger of the Publication and Sunday School Board and the Board of Christian Education into the new Board of Christian Education, now having the joint functions of the two former Boards.

During the past three years these two Boards have been holding joint meetings annually. Thus there gradually came about a better understanding of the respective purposes of these two Boards. Finally the conviction became unanimous that these two Boards should merge as a necessary condition for the highest development of the great work of Christian education lying before us. Accordingly, General Synod at its recent meeting at Indianapolis voted that the merger be consummated.

The Board consists of three main departments: I. The Department of Home and Church; II. The Department of Leadership Training; III. The Department of Business and Real Estate.

The Board has a Staff Council consisting of the Executive Secretary, the departmental secretaries and directors of the Board, also Dr. A. V. Casselman of the Department of Missionary Education; Mr. Ralph S. Adams, Superintendent of Country Life, and Dr. J. M. Mullan, Executive Secretary of the Commission on Social Service as advisory members. The Staff also includes representatives of the newly created Advisory Missionary Education Council and the Advisory Council of the Higher Institutions of Learning.

Members of the Board of Christian Education

Dr. Conrad Clever (elected for life as President Emeritus); Drs. H. J. Christman, Paul S. Leinbach, Henry I. Stahr, Paul J. Dundore and Otto B. Moor; Prof. G. L. Omwake, David I. Prugh, Esq., and Harry W. Deitz (6 years); Drs. T. F. Herman and C. F. Kriete, Rev. L. E. Bair, Rev. A. N. Sayres, Rev. John M. Peck, Harry E. Hartman and Milton Warner (3 years).

Advisory Members: Mrs. F. Wm. Leich, Mrs. Lee M. Erdman and Miss Margaret Motter.

The Reorganization of the Board

On June 6 the Board of Christian Education met for reorganization and carried into effect the instructions of General Synod requiring immediate attention.

Provision was made for the revision of the charter and needed changes in the Constitution and By-Laws. Here is a summary of the actions taken as published in the Reformed Church Messenger, June 13, 1929:

Board of Christian Education Organizes

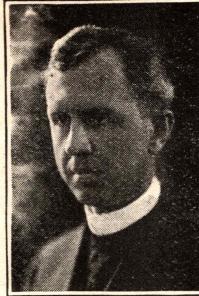

On Thursday, June 6, the new Board of Christian Education, elected by General Synod, met in the Schaff Building, Philadelphia, for organization. Every one of the 15 members was present. In accordance with the request of General Synod, the Rev. Dr. Conrad Clever, who was for 36 years president of the Publication and Sunday School Board, was elected president emeritus of the new Board and was accorded full voting membership. The election of officers resulted as follows: president, Rev. Henry I. Stahr, D.D., Hanover, Pa.; vice-president, Rev. Charles F. Kriete, D.D., Louisville, Ky.; recording secretary, Rev. Paul J. Dundore, Ph.D., Greenville, Pa.; treasurer, Milton Warner, Philadelphia. The executive committee consists of Henry I. Stahr, Paul S. Leinbach, Theodore F. Herman, Alfred N. Sayres, Harry E. Hartman and Milton Warner. Dr. Paul S. Leinbach was elected executive secretary until the next annual meeting. In the meantime, a committee of the Board will survey the field and make recommendations on the permanent filling of that position. Dr. C. A. Hauser was elected secretary of the Department of Home and Church, and Dr. A. S. Bromer was elected secretary of the Department of Business and Real Estate. It was a matter for congratulation that Dr. Bromer was permitted to be present, after his serious illness. Many important matters were discussed and a most aggressive spirit was manifested. It was a decidedly heartening meeting, and we feel that matters of vital moment will be reported to the Church from time to time to indicate the advancing movement of Christian Education, which is so fundamental to the life of the Church.

Executive Secretary.

The Educational and Field Staffs of the former Publication and Sunday School Board are retained in office. They are Mrs. Margaret L. String, Director of Children's Work; Mrs. Catharine Miller Balm, Director of Young People's Work; Rev. Fred'k D. Wentzel, Director of Leadership Training in the Local Church. The members of the Field Staff are Rev. W. H. Knierim, Director of Christian Education for Mid-West Synod; Dr. E. G. Krampe, Director for Northwest Synod and Mrs. Anna L. Miller, Field Worker for Ohio Synod.

The Board is giving careful consideration to the enlargement of its work made necessary by the new Department of "Leadership Training" which is planned to make important contacts and render large service in co-operation with the higher institutions of learning.

The Plan of Intensive Field Promotion

Another outstanding development during the year was the work of the Synodical and Classical Committees on Christian Education working in co-operation with the Board of Christian Education in carrying forward its intensive Plan of Field Promotion.

Such a Conference as that held at Reading last September under the auspices of the Committee on Christian Education of Eastern Synod, the Conference in connection with the meeting of Ohio Synod, and the report of the Classical Committee presented through the Director of Religious Education to Lancaster Classis, show that a new day has dawned in co-operative work in religious education in our denomination. Local Churches are beginning to think of their Church Schools in a more thorough educational way. Pastors are more keenly sensing their responsibility in this regard. The training of leaders is being more carefully considered. Individual schools are facing specific problems seriously and are passing on the results in conferences. New leaders are being discovered and used. There is a fine sharing of responsibility as between the denominational Board and the Synodical and Classical Committees. The result of this plan if consistently carried forward will do much, to give to schools, and get from them, for other schools the things necessary for the realization of the educational ideal in the local church.

Before the ALMANAC shall have reached you, the first installment of the new Departmental Graded Lessons will have made their appearance in the form of the Junior Teacher and Pupil Quarterly. In January the Primary material will appear and so on until the entire Series is revised. These new lessons give promise of comparing favorably with the best lesson material in the field today, as they embody the latest results of curriculum study and the writers are among the leading authorities in our country.

The new mill property purchased by Eastern Synod and now being equipped for Camp purposes, is a venture of great promise for the leadership needed in our churches in the future. One interesting discovery is the sense of ownership manifest by the large number of people who have been attracted to the site and have expressed gratification that this step has been taken by the Church. Ideas regarding the purpose of the Camp are vague in the public mind. Uppermost is the popular idea that the Camp is a place to play and lounge. The real purpose of the Church Camp is to combine play and hard work and to use even the play element for Christian life purposes. The best clue to the answer is that given by the campers, who express sentiments like this: "The camp made a different boy or girl of me;" "Now I want to work in my Church." "Nothing seems so much worth while as Christian Service."

During the year the following Church School Standards have been released by the International Council of Religious Education:

Standards for the Beginners', Primary, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Departments, Standard A for the Sunday Church School, Standard B for the Sunday Church School, A Proposed Standard for the Adult Religious Education in the Local Church.

Since the denominations have had a large share in developing these Standards they are adopting them as their own. They will be used in the Reformed Church. The Board of Christian Education is making provision for bringing these Standards to the attention of our schools. They take the place of the former so called "Ten Point Minimum Standard of Efficiency". Church Schools anxious to build real schools of Christian Education will find these "Educational Yardsticks" indispensable.

Landmarks Leading to the Board of Christian Education

In this year of the origin of the new Board of Christian Education it will be of interest to Almanac readers to make a pilgrimage back to the rock whence we were hewn.

First of all it is interesting to note on this pilgrimage, that it took us more than two hundred years before we got to a place where we have a Board of Christian Education responsible for a fully rounded out program of religious education in the local church.

America by reason of its democratic spirit proved fertile ground for the future development of free state schools and education for all. But originally the local church in this country was face to face with the responsibility for the entire education of its children, religious and so-called secular. Nor was there a denominational Board to which a congregation could turn for help. But text books and other helps were needed.

This need was first met by individual publishing houses whence the church school drew its supplies. So the real forerunner of the Board of Christian Education is the publishing house. In our denomination, here are some of the leading mile stones on the journey back.*

Original hymn books and catechisms were imported from Europe.

In 1744 the first edition of the hymn book was published in German by Christopher Saurs, in Germantown, Pennsylvania. It contained the Psalms in metre and seven hundred hymns.

In 1752, another edition of the hymnal was published by Saurs. "This contained in addition to the Psalms and Hymns, the Heidelberg Catechism, morning and evening prayers, fast day, penitential and communion prayers, the Gospel and Epistles for the Church Year, a short history of the Destruction of Jerusalem and closed with devout private prayers for use in the Church."

1790—"An edition of the Catechism alone was printed as early as 1790 by Carl Cist, of Philadelphia." (Recently the author of this record found a copy of the Heidelberg Catechism in the collection of Early American Children's Books 1682-1874, in the Free Library of Philadelphia, entitled, "Catechismus oder Kurtzer Unterricht Christlicher Lehre: Fuer die angehende Jugend in der churfuerstlichen Pfaltz und andere Reformirten Orten, zu gebrauchen samt der Haustafel. Heydelberg, gedruck im Jahre 1753, und nun auf Schesnot=Hill 1763.")

* The information prior to 1867 is taken from a pamphlet entitled, History of the Publication Efforts of the Reformed Church in the U. S. Written by the Rev. Samuel R. Fisher, D.D., at one time Editor of the Reformed Church Messenger and Business Manager of the former Publication Board of the Reformed Church.

In 1794 "The Synod resolved upon preparing a new Hymn Book"—"It was published in 1796 by one Steiner."

1805—The Reformed Church for the first time "engaged in direct publication efforts." In that year we published the "Synodal Ordnung," "which had been adopted by the Synod in 1793, together with some addenda, which had been made in 1800."

"In 1816, the hymn book known as "Die Gemein Schaeftliche Gesangbuch," designed for the joint use of the Lutheran and Reformed Churches, was published at Sumneytown, Pa."

1817, is important because Synod, "resolved to publish her minutes in pamphlet form." "Up to this date, all her Synodical Records were preserved in manuscript." An appendix to the first printed minutes also contains a very interesting sketch of the Rise and Progress of the Synod of the German Reformed Church in Pennsylvania and adjacent States.

1825—Minutes first published in English as well as German.

1827—The Reformed Church Messenger began its history. Its publication was commenced in November of this year at Carlisle, Pa. "under the direction of the Board of Missions." It bore the following titles:

From 1827-1831—The Magazine of the German Reformed Church, published monthly.

From 1831-1835—"Messenger of the German Reformed Church" published monthly until July 1834 as "a small quarto newspaper". From then until July 1835 it was published semi-monthly as a "weekly folio sheet".

From 1835-1840—"Weekly Messenger."

From 1840-1864—"German Reformed Messenger."

1864—"The Reformed Church Messenger."

1837-1848, "Der Christliche Herold," and "Die Evangelische Zeitschrift", which had both been started as private enterprises, were transferred to the Board of Missions, merged and published by the Board under the title, "Die Christliche Zeitschrift". In 1848 this paper became the "Reformierte Kirchenzeitung". About this time other privately controlled church papers came into being and greatly added to the difficulty of the publication problem.

1840, January 15, "The Printing Establishment of the German Reformed Church commenced its existence," at Chambersburg, Pa.

1844—The "Board of Publication" was organized by Synod. The publication operations and the Printing Establishment which were up to this time under the control of the Board of Home Missions were committed to this new Board. (In 1838 the Board of Foreign Missions was organized.)

1848—"Near the close of this period, the publication of the "Western Missionary" (now the Christian World) was commenced."

1840-1863. This period was characterized by a greatly increased number of publications, chief of which are the following:—

1840—The Mayer Liturgy

1844—The Anxious Bench—J. W. Nevin

1846—The Mystical Presence—J. W. Nevin

1849—The Mercersburg Review

1850—The Guardian—Dr. H. Harbaugh

1857—The German Hymn Book

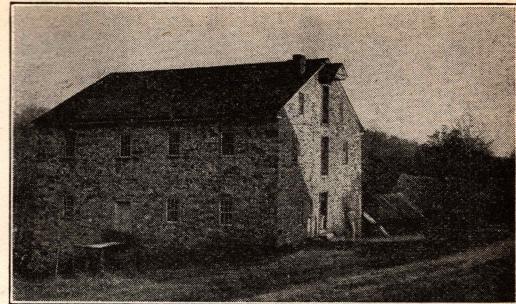

1857—The Provisional Liturgy

Many important larger theological works grew out of this active theological controversial period, such as Dr. Schaff's Church History.

1859—Marks the beginning of what is now the Central Publishing House.

1859—In January of this year, "a Sunday School paper, the first of its kind in the Reformed Church, entitled, "The Pastor's Helper", edited by the Rev. G. B. Russel, commenced its monthly issue in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania."

1864—The burning of Chambersburg during the Civil War, causing the destruction of the Printing Establishment, resulted in the relocation of the Board of Publication to Philadelphia. The first location was at 52 and 54 N. 6th Street.

DAS NEU "SCHULHAUS AN DER KRICK"

The story is familiar of how through the heroic efforts of the late Dr. Rufus W. Miller, the Board came into possession of the new and magnificent Schaff Building, which now houses all of the Boards of General Synod and the Woman's Missionary Society.

1865—The Publication Board took over "The Pastor's Helper", changed the title to "The Child's Treasury". Thus began the Sunday school publication activity of the Reformed Church.

1866—The "Laemmerhirte," a German Sunday School paper originally, commenced and issued in connection with the "Orphans' Home" at Bridesburg, was undertaken by the Board.

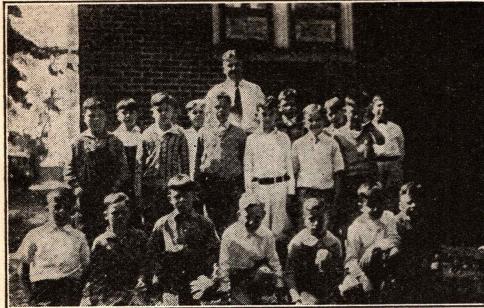

1887—The Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church was created by General Synod.

1893—Dr. Rufus W. Miller was elected the first Executive Secretary, which office he faithfully discharged, ever widening the horizon of our educational work and increasing the usefulness of the Board to the Sunday Schools of the church.

1896—Authority was granted the Sunday School Board to publish the Sunday school periodicals, provided satisfactory arrangements could be made with the Publication Board at Philadelphia and the Reformed Publishing Company at Dayton. Agreements were reached and the transfer was made in July of the same year.

1912—The Publication Board and the Sunday School Board were merged into the Publication and Sunday School Board.

1923—The Board of Christian Education was organized by General Synod.

A JUNIOR DISCUSSION GROUP

1929—The Board of Christian Education merged with the Publication and Sunday School Board, by action of General Synod, to become the Board of Christian Education.

It has been a long and difficult journey from the time when the Publication and Sunday School Board offered the local church printed supplies to meet their needs, to the organization of a Board of Christian Education seeking to aid in the solution of the intricate problem of religious education. Truly we have reached one of the most important epochs in the history of our Church. May God grant us grace and wisdom to make the most of this new opportunity and responsibility.

In the Children's Division During 1929

Put on your seven league boots and step with us over hill and dale, peeping into the rooms our children use on Sunday. You will need to step very carefully at many places, for everywhere you will see piles of brick and dirt. They will tell you we are adding new rooms and enlarging others. Never before have we had the number of calls to help plan new buildings.

Our hearts thrill with joy as we hear of the larger vision of the value of children's work, coming to us from all sections of the church. The Church school is a real school now and definite courses of study are in use. Much of our time has been spent in co-operation with representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., Presbyterian Church of Canada, Presbyterian Church South, Northern Baptist, Southern Baptist, and Disciples of Christ, in completing the themes for the new curriculum. The themes are in the hands of the lesson writers and the completed lessons will be used during this year. These new lessons will carry with them new pictures, new stories, worship materials, suggestive projects and outlines for discussion. The looseleaf form of the Junior material will commend it to many teachers.

You would be weary if you followed the director from county to county attending the county conventions as we co-operate with the state in its work. You would enjoy the new interest everywhere manifested in the proposed standard of the International Council of Religious Education for the Children's Division. The standard strives to measure and conserve real values and not only attendance. It can be achieved by the small as well as the large school.

We are recommending its use in every school this year. It is your measuring stick, why not use it? It would be interesting to glance into the mail-bag any day and read the requests for new plans, and methods, better hymn-books, pageants, stories and pictures. Even the notes of appreciation are pleasant reading. It has been our pleasure to write and send out three copies of the "Children's Division Guide", this little paper helps to unite our thinking and brings before our workers new books and plans.

We have written our annual leaflet on Programs for Missionary Instruction, a Primary Leaflet full of helpful suggestions and had the privilege of writing a new type of Children's Day Service called "Of Such is the Kingdom".

FIRST REFORMED CHURCH VACATION CHURCH, SCHOOL, SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.,
GIRLS' EMBROIDERY CLASS

This new type of service filled a need and it was encouraging to learn that many churches used the whole service this year for the first time in years.

The Vacation Schools were added to the work of the secretary of this Division and the reports still coming in show an increased interest in this branch of our educational work. We are indeed grateful to our Heavenly Father for His continued blessing on our work and we pray for success as we enter a new year in this service.

The Young People's Department

Field work in Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Iowa, Wisconsin and Missouri revealed two outstanding needs. First, young people are willing to serve the church provided the church shares real responsibility with the young people. They are not interested in the little activities which most churches think are enough to keep young people in the church. They want to be, to the limit of their abilities, to the limit of what those abilities may become, with training, actual partners in the great tasks of the church. The church has thought of the young people as future leaders (when the present leaders have reluctantly relinquished their authority): the church must begin to think of young people as increasingly sharing in leadership opportunities. Everywhere there is evidence that young people are capable of larger tasks and utterly bored with those which to them seem invented by others as if to "keep them out of mischief."

The second painfully evident need is that young people in youth organizations—departments, classes, societies, shall be helped to a new understanding of the real purposes of those organizations. One finds ineffective uninspired programs for young people because the young people have fallen into a traditional routine. The young people's society, for instance, in which young people could help each other develop a dynamic Christian attitude toward life, becomes a thing of dull habit, with young people "taking part" because a pledge requires them to. Success in young people's work depends upon a program with room for creative effort on the part of youth, carried on through organizations chosen on the basis of present effectiveness, not past success.

Limited space prevents description of the county, state and national conventions and conferences. We should like especially to mention the annual conference of the Hungarian young people, which was unusually successful. The national convention of the United Presbyterian young people showed how a denominational consciousness on the part of youth is developed without cutting off interdenominational contacts. Our young people were very much in evidence in the International Christian Endeavor Convention in Kansas City and your director of young people's work had a very active part on the program. Her field schedule included, also the International Girls' Camp at Lake Geneva and our own Eastern Synod's camp.

Future work includes a wide field schedule. Much attention during Fall 1929 to Spring 1930 will be concentrated on working to get from the young people themselves their judgment regarding the goals for young people's work for the quadrennium following the International Sunday School Convention at Toronto in 1930.

Attention is called to The Guide Book, published monthly by the Young People's Department, to help youth leaders in local churches, to the Young People's Society page in The Way and to the Christian Quest pamphlets which are inexpensive and excellent source materials for many phases of young people's work. The Department is especially recommending two new books, "Church Work with Young People," by Stock, a fine presentation of the whole matter of local church work with youth and "The Successful Young People's Society" by Catharine Miller Balm which shows the place of the society in the modern program of religious education and gives in detail every phase of society work.

Progress in Leadership Training

Through the Leadership Training Department methods are being perfected for the efficient guidance of local congregations in discovering and preparing leaders for the multiform work of the Church. The leadership class is encouraged to make its activities more interesting and more fruitful by means of carefully supervised observation and practice. The teachers of local groups show a real appreciation for the help offered them in a new type of examination which they receive when they begin the study of a course.

REFORMED CHURCH YOUTH LEADERS IN IOWA

We have co-operated with the Department of Country Life in the preparation of a 100-point Standard for Rural Churches with which a number of rural congregations are experimenting. It promises to be a good instrument for the measuring of a congregational program and for its gradual improvement.

In order to discover what a pastor or a director of religious education might do through a program of training by personal supervision, the Director of Leadership Training regularly visited a Primary Department in one church and an Intermediate Department in another for a period of three months. Some valuable suggestions will be given to pastors as a result of this effort to meet the present needs of two groups of leaders.

The Cedar Crest Summer School of 1929 indicated a decided upward trend in religious educational interest on the part of the more mature workers of our Church Schools. The Vacation School for Beginner, Primary, and Junior children which served as a practice school for the delegates vitalized the classroom meetings of the Summer School and proved an effective method for the development of insight and skill. An occasional publication, called "The Cedar Crest Chronicle", is prepared by the students of the School. It contains interesting notes from faculty members and describes the activities in which the delegates engage in their churches.

The Summer School at Dayton continues to grow in enrollment and in effectiveness. Its students, like those of Cedar Crest, keep alive their friendships and exchange experiences through a publication prepared by an editorial staff elected annually. Their paper is named "The Daytonian". The 1929 session of the School has begun to make practice-teaching available to workers with Primary children.

In both Summer Schools the "post-school report" which the delegate sends to his teachers some time after the close of the School is a fascinating enterprise. The teacher helps a student to plan a definite activity in the home situation before he leaves the Summer School. When this activity has been carried out a careful report of its purpose, its process, and its success is written by the worker and submitted to the Summer School teacher. Credit certificates are awarded only after these post-school reports have been prepared.

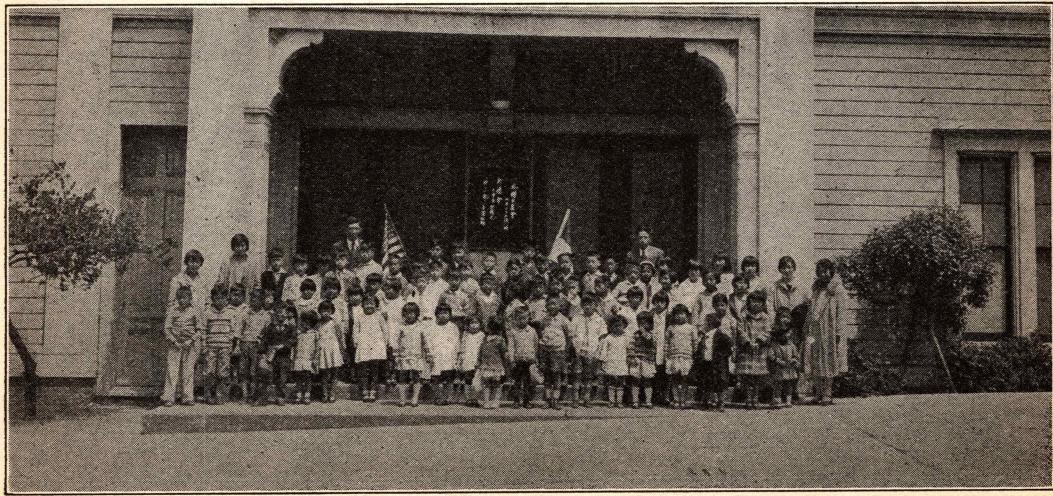

More favorable conditions have been secured for the attempt to unite at the Kiskiminetas Academy in Saltsburg, Pa., a missionary conference and a camp conference. In ten days it has been possible not only to do justice to the camp courses, but also to achieve in a larger way the purpose of the missionary conference.

The young people of the Eastern Synod and older leaders also have expressed their interest in the new camp near Boyertown, Pennsylvania, which was purchased by the Synod in the fall of 1928. Hundreds of members of Reformed Churches have visited the site and have gone away to advertise its beauties. The Camp Management Committee, of which the Rev. Daniel J. Wetzel is chairman, has removed unsightly piles of rubbish and made the old mill site a fascinating place which weaves its enchantment about every visitor. Rugged stone buildings—mill, house, barn, wagon-shed—have been remodelled to serve the needs of a leadership training camp. A two-weeks' leadership camp in the summer of 1929 begins what will in all probability be a long and varied and fruitful use of a forty-three acre farm that might have gone to seed if it had not been discovered so fortunately by the Camp Committee of the Synod.

ON HIS BREAST

If John could lean on Jesus' breast,
I, too, may find that rest;
Has He not told in His own Word,
"My Way is always best?"
If John could gain that view sublime,
While walking in His way,

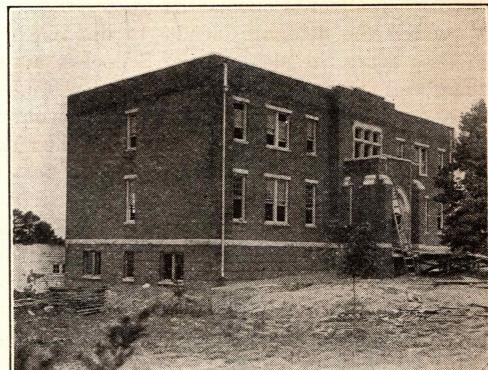

I, too, can gain that "bliss divine,"
I know He lives today.
If John could feel the Lord's great love,
And His dear face could see,
I, too, may hold "communion sweet"—
For He, my Lord, loves me! —M. D. T.

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

WM. C. SYKES, D.D.

Our Ministers

God in His benign wisdom calls and ordains ministers of the Gospel to develop religion in the souls of men, and thus make the world a better place in which to live. Our ministers transmit the power of the Gospel to men and thereby enlighten, energize, and enoble them. Ministers are indispensable. The world simply can't get along without them which preach the Gospel.

Ministers of the Gospel give us power to get health, wealth, and happiness; homes, hospitals, and helpful institutions; good government, schools, and libraries; and best of all, eternal life through Jesus Christ. For the most valuable services, which our ministers render the world, our Church should support them, when active or aged.

The support we give our active ministers is a "salary" and the support we give our aged ministers is "Ministerial Relief," and both are given for services rendered. Ministerial Relief is based on justice, not on charity, and is the command of God. I Cor. 9:14.

Our Church and Ministerial Relief

Our Church believes thoroughly in Ministerial Relief. The General Synod, the eight District Synods, and the 59 Classes have each and all approved of Ministerial Relief and have urged our Church to provide adequate help for all our veteran ministers and their widows.

Our pastors and people are more deeply interested in the great work of Ministerial Relief than they have ever been, and are providing more largely and lovingly for our dear aged and disabled ministers and the widows of ministers. Besides this, God is richly blessing the most worthy, needy cause of Ministerial Relief.

Our Board of Ministerial Relief

Our General Synod provides Ministerial Relief through its Board of Ministerial Relief, which is elected by the General Synod.

Our Board of Ministerial Relief represents every section of our Church, and consists of Rev. Wallace H. Wotring, D.D., LL.D., President; Rev. Harry N. Bassler, D.D., Vice President; Rev. James W. Meminger, D.D., Secretary; Rev. Eugene L. McLean, D.D., Treasurer; Elder A. Paul Gerhart, Campaign Director; Rev. Henry C. Nott, D.D.; Rev. Carl F. Heyl, D.D.; Rev. John L. Barnhart, D.D.; Rev. Frederick A. Ruppley, D.D.; Rev. William H. Bollman; Rev. W. Sherman Kerschner, D.D.; Rev. Orris W. Haulman; Elder Edwin H. Marcus; and the new members of the Board elected by the General Synod in 1929, Rev. William C. Sykes, D.D., and Rev. Tillman W. Hoernemann, D.D., whose photographs appear on this page and the next page. Prof. J. W. Grosshuesch, Ph. D., is the Honorary Vice President of the Board and its representative in the Northwest Synod.

Our Board of Ministerial Relief is the creature and agent of our General Synod. The General Synod has entrusted the Church's loving care of its aged and disabled ministers and the widows of ministers to the Board of Ministerial Relief. The Board of Ministerial Relief is the Church's Big Brother Board. Its benign object is to care adequately for every aged and disabled minister and widow of a minister in our Church. It loves and cares for our veteran ministers, their widows and orphans, as a true father cares for his own children. The Board is filled with compassion, as is our dear Saviour.

Service Features

Service is the big word with our Board of Ministerial Relief. Its motto is "Ich dien." Our Board renders valuable service to our Church in many ways. It endeavors to be a servant of all, as was our dear Saviour. Since our Board was organized and began its work in May, 1905, it has established a number of new service features.

Besides establishing our Sustentation Fund and opening an office with full-time workers, our Board added many other new features, some of which are: The consolidation of all Relief Agencies; the securing of a Relief Apportionment; the establishment of Memorial Funds and Annuity Bonds; the installing of a modern system of Finance and Accounting; the publication of an annual Relief Service and much new literature; and a great increase of the Assets.

Therefore, our Big Brother Board is caring more adequately for our veteran ministers and their widows; is relieving our pastors of anxiety about their future and thereby causing them to do more and better work; is attracting the finest young men to our ministry; and is relieving congregations of supporting their disabled ministers.

The Better Things

Approved facts show that our Board of Ministerial Relief today is doing better work in every way since it opened its office in 1920.

Ten years of intensive effort has produced at least ten better things for Ministerial Relief. 1.

A better organization. 2. Better equipment. 3. Better housekeeping. 4. Better accounting. 5. Better banking. 6. Better investments. 7. Better literature. 8. Better publicity. 9. Better informed laymen. 10. Better Church support.—But more important than the above ten great achievements is the fact that our Board is able to give our aged and disabled ministers much better support.

A Bigger Corporation

Audited figures prove that our Board of Ministerial Relief is a much bigger corporation than it was ten years ago.

Relief is bigger. Compare 1918 with 1928. Annuitants then 106; now 218. Annuities then $17,431.00; now $70,600.00. Total receipts then $13,598.64; now $167,087.83. Present amounts are still bigger.—Sustentation is bigger. Active members in 1918, 23; in 1928, 859. Annuitants then, none; now 51. Total receipts then $1,645.28; now $173,024.87.—Since 1920, our Board of Ministerial Relief grew 31,899% in some ways, and many per cent. in every way. Our Board is at least 3,000% bigger than it was only ten years ago.

The Best Modern Thought

Years ago employees trusted to fickle fortune for help in disability. Now business of all kinds cares well for its disabled employees.

Our General Synod followed the best modern thought when it established our Sustentation Fund, which insures each minister for $10,000; that is, the interest on this amount at 5%.—But our Church has not completed its share (four-fifths) of our Sustentation Fund. Of the $1,328,550 needed $1,000,000 has been promised and $310,000 paid, which leaves $1,018,550 to be paid.

Denominational Church Pensions

The leading denominations are making splendid provision for their veteran ministers and their widows. The Episcopalian Church has over $22,000,000 for ministers' pensions; the Presbyterian over $21,000,000; the Methodist Episcopal over $20,000,000; the Northern Baptist over $15,000,000; the Congregational over $10,000,000; and other denominations lesser sums. Our Reformed Church has only $940,000 for ministers' pensions, but is raising $1,000,000 more to complete our Sustentation Fund.

THE SUMMER MISSIONARY CONFERENCES

"Throughout the world there is a sense of insecurity and instability. Ancient religions are undergoing modification, and in some regions dissolution, as scientific and commercial development alter the current of men's thought. Institutions regarded with age-long veneration are discarded or called in question; well-established standards of moral conduct are brought under criticism; and countries called Christian feel the stress as truly as the peoples of Asia and Africa."

"Along with this is found the existence of world-wide suffering and pain, which expresses itself partly in a despair of all higher values, partly in a tragically earnest quest of a new basis for life and thought."

"Amid wide-spread indifference and immersion in material concerns we also find everywhere, now in noble forms and now in license or extravagance, a great yearning, especially among the youth of the world, for the full and untrammeled expression of personality, for spiritual leadership and authority, for reality in religion, for social justice, for human brotherhood, for international peace."

"In this world, bewildered and groping for its way, Jesus Christ has drawn to Himself the attention and admiration of mankind as never before. He stands before men as plainly greater than Western civilization, greater than the Christianity that the world has come to know."

These are the opening sentences of the findings of the great International Missionary Council held at Jerusalem during Eastertide of 1928. The Summer Missionary Conferences of 1929 were concerned primarily with the consideration of the message of Christianity for such a world as this. No more important theme could challenge the attention of the Church than that of the message and program of Christianity adequate to meet the demands and the needs of this very world in which we live. The delegates of the Conferences spent days in seeking the solution of modern world problems in the spirit of Jesus. As a result of a week of study and discussion at the Conferences, many of our young people went back to their home congregations with a new vision of a new world and a new determination that the Reformed Church should have her just share in the making of a Christ-like world.

Under the auspices of the Department of Missionary Education, Rev. A. V. Casselman, D.D., Secretary, nine Conferences were held last year, as follows: Frederick, Md., at Hood College; Brooklyn, Ind., at Bethany Park; Salisbury, N.

The total attendance at the Conferences was between three and four thousand, over half of whom were regularly accredited delegates from congregations, attending the classes of the conferences. It is a matter of significant importance that the great majority of these delegates were young people. Through the influence of these young people the congregations of the Reformed Church ought to be richer in world-wide experience and more thoroughly prepared to meet and solve present-day problems both at home and abroad.

MRS. MAUD B. TRESCHER,

MISS HELEN M. NOTT,

The beginning, as well as the close, of a Triennium in the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod always marks an interesting epoch in the life of the organization. There are usually some new officers added to the Cabinet in place of those who have passed on or whose terms have expired. Pictures of some of the officers accompany this article while the names of the entire Cabinet appear elsewhere. Our denomination has a host of women who do much for the spread of Christ's Kingdom through the volunteer service they render as members of the Cabinet of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod.

From May 1926 to April 1929 the society paid for Home Mission work more than $170,000; for Foreign work $174,000 was expended; for promotional work, which includes appropriations to the Council of Women for Home Missions, the Federation of Woman's Boards of Foreign Missions and the Foreign Missions Conference, salaries of three secretaries, Institutes, printing of stationery and free literature, Thank Offering boxes, etc., $69,000. The two offices maintained at Headquarters in Philadelphia and at Cleveland are practically self-supporting.

The various departments, through the respective secretaries, tend to strengthen the spiritual life of the members. Notable among these is the Stewardship department. An intensive study of this subject has been carried on for several years and has been of inestimable value in the hearts and lives of the members. Fifteen per cent (15%) of the members as tithing stewards is a new goal set by this department. A spirit of thankfulness has been cultivated among the women through the Thank Offering department. One of its new projects is a dormitory for girls at the Indian School in Neillsville, Wisconsin.

A Thank Offering box in every home in the Church is the aim of the General Synodical Secretary. The Temperance or, as we like to think of it, Christian Citizenship department is making the most of its opportunity to promote world citizenship and brotherhood by means of programs of education.

The Educational Commission renders a valuable and helpful service to societies through the preparation and oversight of literature, the Prayer Calendar and Institutes.

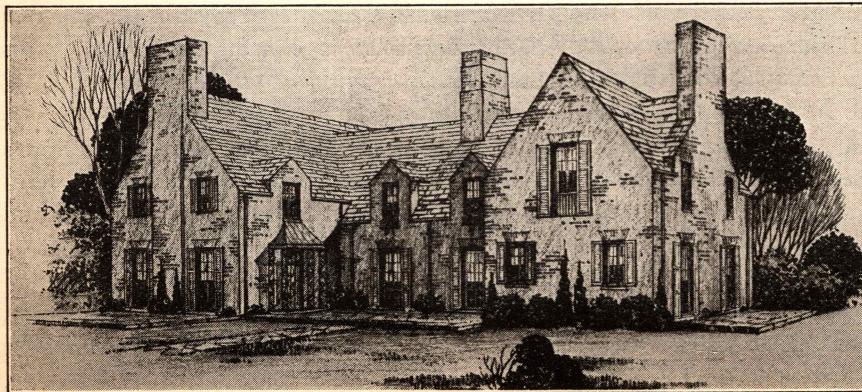

The Educational Aid for Service Committee recommends financial aid, for further study, to women missionaries home on furlough or any worthy young women desiring to serve under the Boards of Home or Foreign Missions. During the Triennium about $4,250 was thus expended from the perpetual fund which has been created from the fees of Life Members and Members in Memoriam, which makes possible this aid. The subscription list of the "Outlook of Missions" is largely the responsibility of the missionary societies who get much help from the pages of the magazine.

At the opening of a Triennium an effort is made to evaluate the opportunities that are afforded for spiritual and material service. During the three years just past thousands of women became interested in the special service they could render their Lord through the medium of the missionary society; on the other hand about the same number became disinterested and withdrew their support. The new members may truthfully say with Paul, "I have not been disobedient to the heavenly vision."

In order that the needs of the spiritually hungry and thirsty in China, Japan, Mesopotamia and America may be met, the Budget Committee recommended an increase of five cents in the yearly gifts. These are frequently spoken of as "dues" of which we like to think as being gifts "due" to God for His unspeakable goodness to us—representing a small return to Him for what His son did to elevate the womanhood of the world. How long have we been giving $1.80 per year! How few organizations are asking the same yearly "dues" they required a decade ago! How small in comparison to the increased amount that is spent for articles of wearing apparel! How few will say one dissenting word when told that $1.85 is the minimum amount "due"!

Many specific pieces of work supported through the gifts of the members might be mentioned if space permitted. The souls made brighter and happier by these gifts cannot be estimated. We are restless when we think of past achievements. Much more might have been accomplished if all women had worked together to this end. In the light of the opportunities we face we cannot help but look forward to the time when every woman in the Church will take an active interest in the purpose and aim of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod, which is, "to assist the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Foreign Missions especially in their program for the 'Christianization and Elevation of the Womanhood and Childhood of the World.' YUNDT MEMORIAL GATEWAY, BETHANY

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME, WOMELSDORF, PA.

Rev. C. Harry Kehm, Superintendent
Rev. W. F. More, D.D., Sup't Emeritus

The Yundt Memorial Gateway

At the first annual reunion of the former children after Rev. Yundt's death a committee of five was appointed to form plans for the erection of a gateway to be erected as a memorial to the splendid and self-sacrificing work of the deceased Superintendent. The gateway was dedicated on October 6, 1910, with appropriate services.

When the cement road was built from Womels-dorf to the Home in 1926, it became necessary to move the pillars and wings of the gateway back about fifty feet. The wings were taken apart and rebuilt but the pillars were moved bodily. Only one stone became loose and that one was replaced. The gateway today as you see it in the photo contains the same original stones. The direction of the wings has been changed and the distance between the pillars has been widened.

ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOME, GREENVILLE, PA.

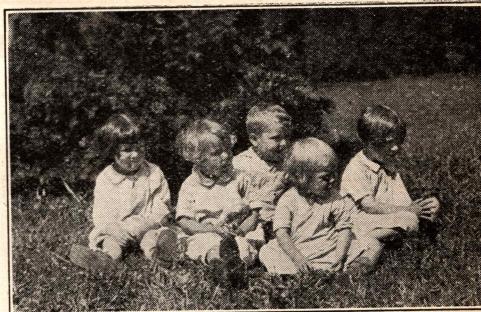

Rev. A. M. Keifer, D.D., Superintendent

The coming of Mr. James D. Pierce as assistant superintendent and Mrs. Pierce as head matron on January 1, 1929 was the leading event of the year at St. Paul's. The immediate care of the children was the first and most important duty assigned to Mr. and Mrs. Pierce. Mr. Pierce's long and successful experience in the public school work fits him well for this particular phase of the work. They are now living in the apartments formerly occupied by Superindale Ave., Greenville, and is giving all his time to helping unfortunate children and old folks. He visits and studies the condition of all applicants for admission to either of the departments, and often helps mothers to maintain their own homes or to place children in private homes. In view of the increasing number of applicants for admission to the Orphans' home, this is coming to be a very important part of the work.

For further information about the work at St. Paul's write to Rev. A. M. Keifer, Greenville, Pa. He is also the Financial Secretary of the Board of Directors and is always ready to receive contributions for the work.

THE NEW HOME OF REV. W. H. McNAIRY, SUPERINTENDENT

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME, ROCKWELL, N. C.

Rev. W. H. McNairy, Superintendent

During the year, 64 girls and boys were under the care of this growing Home, which in several respects has had the greatest year in its history. At last the Superintendent and his family have a comfortable and convenient home in which to live. In spite of the most economical management, however, the income decreased when it should have increased. The Board decided that the erection of an addition to the boys' building is imperative. At least $3,000 will be required. The boys suffered a severe attack of influenza during the last winter largely because their building is not properly heated, and a new heating plant should be erected at once. Surely the generous-hearted people of the Reformed Church have some money to invest in the care and training of these splendid boys and girls.

THE BAND

FORT WAYNE

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME, FORT WAYNE, IND.

Rev. J. F. Tapy, Superintendent

The Fort Wayne Orphans' Home of the Reformed Church, located just outside the flourishing city of Ft. Wayne, Ind., is one of the benevolent institutions of the Reformed Church deserving of the financial support of the members and friends of the Church. We are supported by free-will offerings and in Ohio Synod by an apportionment. We submit the needs to the attention of liberal-hearted people and kindly suggest that this institution be remembered in the wills of loyal church people and by annuity gifts from people who have money they would like to invest in a way in which it would bring returns.

GROUP OF COTTAGES

HOFFMAN

GEO. W. AND AGNES HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE, LITTLESTOWN, PA.

Rev. A. P. Frantz, B.D., Superintendent

The George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage is caring for 68 children, 26 girls and 42 boys, ranging from 5 to 17 years of age. Our children come from 4 states, Southern Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia. All our children are housed in 3 cottages and all the groups of children are in charge of Christian leaders who give personal and paternal consideration and care for each child. Many improvements have been made during the past year to make our cottages and the life of our children more home-like. We have a Boy's Band of 31 members and a Girls' Harmonica Band of 16 members. A much needed addition has been added to our laundry to enable us to do laundry-work more efficiently for our growing family. All our children are taught to work. Each child has a definite work assigned according to his or her physical and mental ability. All our children receive definite and daily religious instruction. We are in great need of funds to care for, house, educate, and provide enough and proper food and clothing for our fatherless, motherless and homeless children.

THE HOME FOR THE AGED, UPPER SANDUSKY, OHIO

Chas. P. Troup, Superintendent

Mrs. Metta Swihart Troup, Matron

Matthew and Jane Smith bequeathed a farm to Toledo Classis of the old Central Synod to establish a home for old people, 1915. The Home opened in Toledo, Ohio, in August, 1918. Rev. B. Ruf was elected the first Superintendent and to him must be given much credit in bringing the institution into a permanent place of activity. The Home was incorporated under the laws of the state of Ohio in 1920, and becomes the property of that portion of the Church embodied in the present Ohio, Mid-West and North-West Synods.

Located at Upper Sandusky, Ohio, May, 1920. Erected first cottage in 1922. Completed Dining Room, Kitchen and Heating plant, July, 1928. Present capacity, 28 beds. Central units sufficient to accommodate 90 more residents when accommodations are furnished by the erection of additional cottages. Area of Home site, 9 acres. Value of present property, $115,000. Annual expense budget, $12,000. Sources of support,—apportionment, gifts, annuities and legacies. Greatest need,—Endowment and Main building—chapel and administrative.

The Home for the Aged of the Reformed Church in the United States is now fully equipped and ready to make a pleasant home for either men or women who qualify for admittance. Certain requirements, physical, mental and financial, are expected to be met by applicants before entrance into the Home. A high standard of morale is maintained and congeniality and friendly relationships are encouraged and cultivated. We are located just without the limits of the city corporation, but have all the conveniences of the city without the noise, dirt and confusion. Several of the main highways of the state pass through our town and our institution attracts many visitors who are impressed with the beauty and attractiveness of our location and buildings. Those who are making their home here have many kind words for the institution and visitors are impressed with the completeness of our buildings and the comfort and conveniences afforded the residents and those also that have to manage the work and perform the menial duties required of such a place. The Board takes pride unto itself because such a fine home can be given at a cost not to exceed $600.00 per annum per person. Should all our rooms be occupied, this per annum cost would be somewhat reduced. Friends of the institution are encouraged to "come and see" and are assured that a hearty welcome will be extended to all.

FAIRVIEW PARK HOSPITAL

CLEVELAND, OHIO

FAIRVIEW PARK HOSPITAL, CLEVELAND, OHIO

Rev. Philip Vollmer, Jr., Superintendent

Fairview Park Hospital, located in Cleveland, Ohio, is owned and operated by "The Society for the Christian Care of the Sick and Needy," whose active, voting membership is limited to members in good and regular standing of the Reformed Church in the U. S. The Society annually elects 3 members to the Board, composed of 12 men, 9 of whom are required to be active members of the Society, thus securing control to the Church group, which 37 years ago brought the institution into being. The Society originally supported deaconess visitation work in the homes of the poor. More than one third of a century of growth has given us a modern hospital of 96 beds whose average daily occupancy for the last six years has been 84%, which is 7% in excess of the average for the hospitals of the country at large. It is very improbable that the fathers could have foreseen how far their modest beginning would be carried.

On Dec. 28th, 1928, Dr. J. H. Stepler, the founder of Fairview, passed away at the home of his son-in-law, the Rev. John Sommerlatte, in Lakewood, Ohio. Associated with Dr. Stepler at the first meetings of the Society in 1892, were some sixty members of the several Reformed churches of Cleveland, of whom Dr. J. H. Stepler, Rev. Ernest A. Fuenfstueck, Dr. J. H. C. Roentgen, William Becker, William G. Richter, Charles Young, Amalie Young, Emma Stepler appear as incorporators on the charter granted by the State of Ohio, Feb. 7, 1894. To these men and women, we of today owe a debt of gratitude, a debt which is being paid splendidly and unselfishly today in gifts and service by Reformed churchmen and other friends of the hospital.

During the past year we had a total of 27,838 patient days. Ten percent of these days were free. Friends of the hospital, working quietly since May, 1927, have cleared away an old debt of $37,000. The Free Dispensary reached a record of 5385 visits last year, the highest in our history. Gifts in support of our free work are always most welcome.

Our School of Nursing offers the regular, accredited three-year course leading to the degree of R. N. (Registered Nurse.) Nursing is a great work in the best sense of the word. It engages the heart as well as the mind. It is happy and rewarding work. There are many openings for advancement to the ambitious. It offers almost unrivaled opportunities for the practice of Christianity. We now enroll 62 students. Recently, in order to serve the best interests of both patients and nurses, we have again raised our entrance requirements and other standards. Correspondence is cordially invited.

Plans are now being perfected to find funds for the expansion of the Hospital and Nurses' Home. The new hospital wing is to include private rooms for our growing maternity service, which last year was severely taxed to accommodate mothers and new-born, as well as beds for chronic cases for whom there is no provision at present. There is to be a special department to provide private rooms at slightly more than cost for patients of moderate means. Larger quarters are planned for X-ray, laboratory, physical therapy and solariums. The new Nurses' Home will house seventy student nurses and faculty, a library, study hall, gymnasium and social rooms. Write us if we can serve you, or if you wish to help us serve others.

THE WM. H. BERGER MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED

Rev. Charles B. Alspach, D.D., Superintendent

WM. H. BERGER MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED

In September, 1928, Elder Jacob S. Sechler received a letter from Mr. Wm. H. Berger in which he expressed his willingness to accede to his request to donate his property in Wyncoate, Pa., to the Classis of Philadelphia to be used as a home for the aged. A few days later a conference was held between Mr. Sechler and the Executive Committee of Classis on this matter and it was agreed to call a special meeting of Classis to consider and take action upon this most generous offer.

Accordingly on September 24, 1928, Classis, without a dissenting voice, accepted this gift and authorized the selection of a Board of Managers. The property is most beautifully and advantageously located on three and one half acres of land which will be ample for all future purposes of enlargement. There are ten bed-rooms in the house which together with the annex (the altered garage) will enable us to accommodate 22 guests.

The Board being compelled by the State to provide ample protection against fire, is erecting a fire-tower and enlarging the bath-room and toilet facilities. It looks at this writing as though this work will be done in time to enable us to open the Home the latter part of August or early in September.

We have an endowment of but $1200. This is made up of two legacies of $500 each and accumulated interest. No apportionment will be laid for the current expenses and we must therefore depend upon voluntary contributions for the support of the Home. Our three county auxiliaries (Chester, Montgomery and Philadelphia) are giving promise of reliable aid in this direction.

Eleven applications for admission into the Home have been approved. There are five others who are applying and there is every reason to believe that we will have a waiting list within a few months. This shows the very great need of this kind of work—a loving service that we can render to these worthy and aged servants of the Church.

Send all contributions to Elder Jacob S. Sechler, Treasurer, 1953 N. Broad St., Philadelphia.

ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF PROPOSED MAIN BUILDING

PHOEBE HOME, ALLENTOWN, PA.

Rev. F. H. Moyer, Superintendent

The First Step

The erection of the Main Building is the first step in the expansion of this Home, to be undertaken as soon as the necessary funds are provided.

The building is to be located in the centre of the Home grounds. It will be connected by corridor with the present Old Folks' Building and with others to be erected later.

On the first floor of the building will be offices, reception rooms, dining room, a large living room where the social and religious life of the family will centre, and other necessary features.

The second floor will contain bed-rooms and sun parlors. The third floor will be used temporarily as an infirmary. Generally from one-fifth to one-fourth of the family belongs to the infirmary.

The Needs

The erection of the Main Building will necessitate additional operations. The whole program follows.

Main Building	$225,000
Infirmary	10,000
Retirement of Bonds.....	20,000

Mortgage on recently acquired Ground....	15,000
Alterations on Existing Building.....	5,000
Fire-towers and Sun-parlors.....	10,000
Moving and Remodeling Brick Residence	10,000
Grading Grounds and Paving.....	5,000
Endowment	50,000
Total	$350,000

A Modest Program

Considering the needs of the Church, this is a very modest building program. There is an average of one homeless aged for every 1000 members of our church.

Until some such building program will be carried out the eleven Classes of the Eastern Synod fostering this Home will not be able to function adequately in the work of caring for their needy aged and infirm.

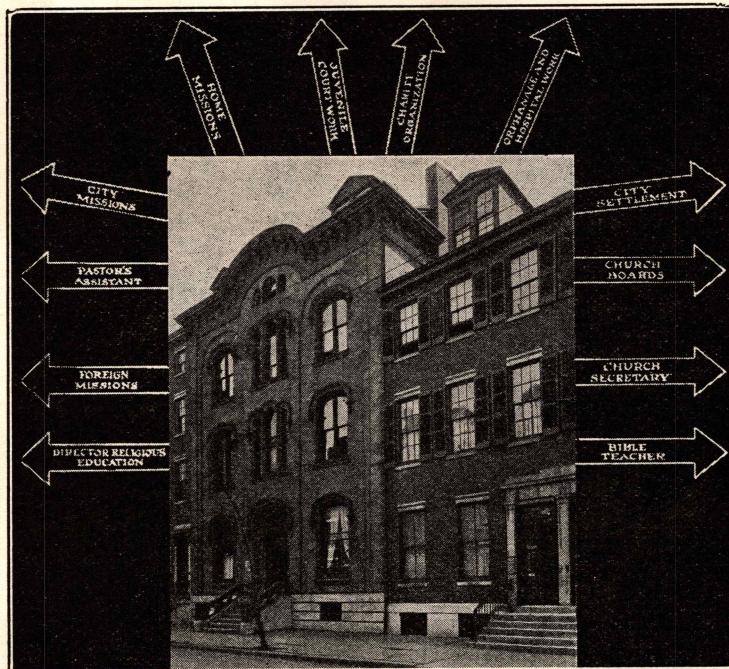

The Campaign in Progress

At this writing the campaign for funds is in progress. Early returns are most gratifying. Out of the 524 congregations supporting the Home, the first 140 making reports have raised in subscriptions and cash $150,000.

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED CHURCHES

Clinton Hancock Gillingham, M.A., D.D., Pres.

Elizabeth A. James, Deaconess-in-Charge

SCHOOL BUILDING, 1122-24-26 SPRUCE STREET

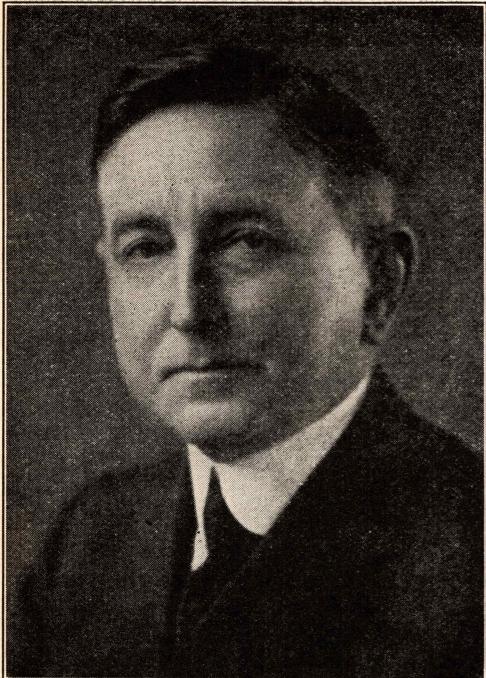

The School offers a new curriculum of religious education for the training of young men and young women preparing for positions of Christian service and leadership. A splendid faculty provides instruction of the highest standards in the English Bible, Religious Education, Psychology, Sociology, English, History, Religious Drama and Pageantry, Public Speaking, Missions, Practical Field Work, Secretarial courses, Music, Expression, and the like.

Graduation from high school is the minimum entrance requirement. The regular training courses for deaconesses (young women) and for directors of religious education (young men and young women) are three years in length.

The cost to the student for tuition, room, board, use of library and recreation room is only $400 for the year. Scholarship loans and remunerative work are available.

The School is endorsed by General Synod. The Church is calling for the services of more graduates than can be supplied. Send worthy students to the School and support the School by gifts to current expenses and to endowment funds. Contributions made on an annuity basis will be welcome and will provide for future expansion.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE REFORMED ALLIANCE

President George Warren Richards, D.D., LL.D., of the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., was highly honored in June, 1929, when he was chosen President of the "Alliance of Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System," for the ensuing quadrennium. The Alliance stands as a symbol of the family ties uniting the Reformed Churches in all lands, a mighty army of approximately 45 million souls. The Reformed Church in the U. S. is gratified at this general recognition of the high qualities of leadership of Dr. Richards by the Reformed Churches of the world. It is the first time in the history of the Alliance that a member of our denomination has been chosen for this high honor and we do not doubt that Dr. Richards will meet its duties and opportunities ably, as well as gracefully. The Alliance has already established friendships of no little value, stimulating the support of weaker and needier Churches and providing a clearing-house of common principles and ideals.

February 24, Zion, Stroudsburg, Pa., Rev. Frank H. Blatt, was rededicated and reopened, after being closed for a period of seven months. Beautiful stained glass windows glorify the rays of sunlight filtering through. Furniture, floor covering, antique Italian plastic wall-covering, interspersed with imitation cut stone, help to make rich and glorious the appearance of God's house; described by both stranger and friend as the "most beautiful church in Monroe County."

Faith, Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. Elmer E. Leiphart, dedicated its parish house on February 17; conducted a V.C.S. with an enrollment of 60; is now erecting a fine Gothic church to take care of the growing work.

FOOD FOR MIND AND HEART

Those who have been readers of the Church paper for years do not need to be convinced of its power for good. In many thousands of homes it has proved itself a real blessing. If we are to maintain a Church in which educational religion and religious education are not simply theories, but actual facts, we must have a reading people—families who are intelligently informed with regard to the activities and the needs of Christ's Kingdom. The Reformed Church Messenger ($2.50), our oldest Church paper, is edited by Rev. Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, with the Rev. A. S. Bromer, D.D., as Associate Editor. The Christian

World ($2.25) is edited by the Rev. Dr. H. S. Gekeler. The Kirchenzeitung ($2.50), our German paper, is edited by the Rev. Dr. Carl F. Heyl. The Outlook of Missions is published monthly, price $1.00, and the International Journal of Religious Education, monthly, costs $2.00. Remember that a truly Reformed Church must be an informed Church. Too many homes are now without Christian literature. One of the greatest services you can render to Protestantism is to inspire a love of good reading in the hearts and minds of the people. And the only genuine statesmanship is to begin with the children in the home.

LIFE ANNUITY BONDS

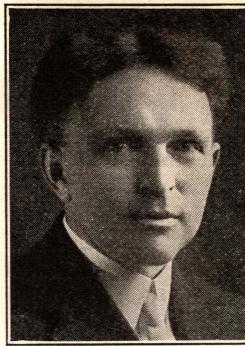

If you are living on your income and will in all likelihood never have to spend the principal, why not make a perfectly safe investment at a fair rate of interest by taking a Life Annuity Bond? You will receive the interest as long as you live and the Board will have the use of the money at once.

Write to the Secretary of the Board you are interested in. He will explain the plan to you.

THE ESCUTCHEON

The committee appointed by General Synod to prepare a design for a coat-of-arms or escutcheon, that would represent the historic line of the Reformed Church in the U. S., submitted its report, together with the design, to General Synod at its sessions held in May, 1929, in Indianapolis, Ind. The report was approved, the design adopted and the committee authorized to have dies made of the same, for use on the official and other stationery of the Church.

The design as adopted is made in colors, a reproduction of the colors, etc., found in the coat-of-arms that, together, constitute the escutcheon. In order that the historical significance of the escutcheon may be understood, the following descriptive sketch is herewith submitted.

The escutcheon is divided into four sections, separated by a large cross, upon which appears the legend, "In Hoc Signo Vinces." ("In This Sign Conquer.") This design is taken from the Reformed Church of Bentheim, a district lying in Germany and on the borders of Holland.

The upper left-hand section carries a surface or field transversely divided into blue and white, representing the coat-of-arms or colors of Zurich. Upon this field is placed the burning bush, the bush that was not consumed. The design represents the Reformed Church in France. The flaming bush was also used by Scotland and Ireland. The inscription varies: "I am burned but not consumed"; "Burning but flourishing"; "And yet it was not consumed."

The upper section on the right, shows a field of scarlet, the color of Switzerland, upon which appears the seal of Calvin, a hand holding a heart. The accompanying legend is, "I yield my heart promptly and sincerely to Thee, O God," or "I offer my heart to Thee, O God."

The entire lower section on the left is given to Zwingli's coat-of-arms. The colors are gold and black. In the centre of the field is a ring. There is no inscription, but the ring is used as a symbol of eternity.

The field of the lower section on the right reproduces the colors of the Palatinate, blue and white. It will be noticed that the colors of Zurich and of the Palatinate are alike. They differ in the arranging or plan. Here the blue and white are in the form of a scotch plaid or diamond shape. On this field is placed the "Lily Among the Thorns." This was the symbol of the Huguenot Church under its severe persecution. It was also used by the Waldensian Church as well as the Reformed Church of Holland. The inscription is "Emergo," "I struggle through." The sentiment is also given, "The Lily springing up from a bed of thorns."

It was impossible to include in the design all these various legends or sentiments. When reduced to a size necessary for a die to be used on the stationery of the Church, the inclusion of these sentiments would have meant a die, indistinct in lettering, and as a result a very unsatisfactory one. The committee hopes, in the near future, to give a price list of small dies that can be used by pastors or congregations. The committee hopes also to offer a large sized reproduction of the original design IN COLORS, that will be suitable for framing and displaying in Sunday Schools or Churches.

—AMBROSE M. SCHMIDT,
Chairman, Committee on Escutcheon.

Hiffle's Cross and Crown System

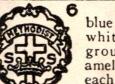

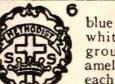

Doubles Sunday School Attendance and Offerings

How to Use the System

Begin by presenting every scholar with the No. 0 celluloid pin. For every term of three months' uninterrupted attendance the pupil earns a reward. For the first term the No. 1 pin, for the second the No. 2 pin, for the third the No. 3x pin; for the fourth the No. 6 pin. Thirteen consecutive Sundays may be considered as three months. Pupils absent without a satisfactory excuse lose the interrupted term, but may begin a new term the next Sunday they attend, continuing to wear the pin already earned.

Each pin obtained is to be worn until the next higher grade is earned, but surrendered upon receiving the new one. The No. 6 solid gold pin is presented outright, and with it a handsome lithographed certificate, 9 x 11 inches, with seal and ribbon attached (for framing). For each additional reward earned another seal and ribbon is attached. These certificates are free to schools. Send for sample.

The System pays for itself by increased offerings as evidenced by numerous testimonials, and may be started successfully at any time. This has been repeatedly proven by actual results.
